

WML have significant experience with refurbishment and conversion of historic, and in particular, Grade I and II listed buildings

WML routinely undertake projects in the specialist field of investigation, repair and refurbishment of historic and listed buildings. Our experience ensures we have a sensitive approach to restoration working with the Design Team to retain as much of the existing fabric as possible, whilst ensuring a substantial life to next maintenance.

University of Manchester Quad Refurbishment

Shortlisted in 2017 RICS Awards - Building Conservation Section
Extensive façade refurbishment and repair to the Grade II* listed buildings surrounding the University of Manchester Quadrangle

Primark Liverpool

Refurbishment of the Lewis Building, Liverpool for Primark. comprised major structural modifications to the existing city centre department store, which included the removal of the two upper floors and replacement with a new intermediate floor to achieve increased headroom necessary for retail sales.

University of Manchester Material Sciences Decant Project

Refurbishment of Grade II Jackson Mill Building for the Material Science Department Decant Project

Mealhouse Brow Development

Winner of the Manchester Society of Architects Design Award for Conservation and Re-Use. Stockport Town Centre regeneration scheme.

Bolton Albert Halls

Winner of the Welsh Slate Living Heritage Award
Shortlisted in Northwest Building Excellence Awards – Best Public Service Building. Refurbishment of a Grade II listed landmark in Bolton, bringing an iconic landmark back to its former glory

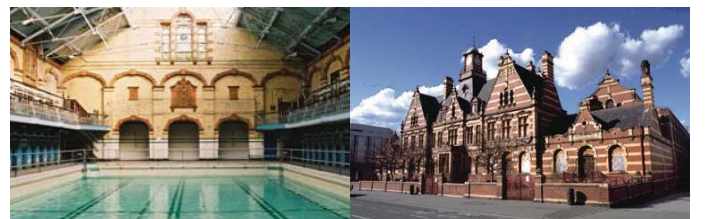

Victoria Mill Refurbishment

Winner of Stockport MBC Best Residential Conversion Design Award. Redevelopment and Conversion of Victoria Mill, including feasibility study, detailed design and construction. 180 apartment development.

Victoria Baths Refurbishment

Winner of BBC's Restoration Series
Extensive refurbishment & structural repairs. to Grade II* listed building. Works have included extensive refurbishment and structural repairs to the building, ensuring the minimum disturbance to original finishes,

Pioneer House, Dewsbury

Refurbishment and redevelopment of the iconic landmark Pioneer House for Kirklees College.